

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 2009

A Trailer Preview to lady in the red dress - Opening Night: January 29th
-An exciting play set in a world of corruption and deceit-

TORONTO, ON - lady in the red dress, by fu-GEN: Asian-Canadian Theatre Company, follows characters embroiled in a world of corruption and deceit. Playwright David Yee re-imagines the Chinese-Canadian struggle for redress as a modern day noir, in the streets of Toronto's Chinatown and corridors of Justice. Part ghost story, part revenge play, lady in the red dress is a darkly comic story about the skeletons in our closets and the consequences of our (in)actions.

DATES of previews - January 24 - 28, 8pm start

MEDIA DAY on Chinese New Year- January 26, 10am - 1pm

DATES of run - January 29 - February 21

TIMES - 8pm, 2pm Saturday matinee

TICKET PRICES - range from $10 - $26

Mon - $10

Tues - Thurs - $20

Fri & Sat night - $26

Sat matinee - $20

VENUE - Young Centre for Performing Arts, 55 Mill Street, Building 49, Toronto, ON

BOX OFFICE number - 416.866.8666

<http://www.fu-gen.org>

Click PLAY below to see the second trailer of sweeping production of lady in the red dress

About fu-GEN

Since 2002, fu-GEN has been devoted to the development of professional Asian-Canadian theatre artists through new and established works. fu-GEN is a dynamic group, determined to carve out a space in the Canadian cultural landscape for vibrant Asian-Canadian voices. In five years, they have launched six major projects - all of which have garnered massive critical acclaim and sold out houses.

Contact Natalie or Louise, Parallel Communications, natalie@parallelonline.com or louise@parallelonline.com, 416 849 9083 for images, for interview requests and for more information.